GOSPEL MEDITATION

As a kid I remember looking at my sister and thinking, "No man is ever going to marry her. She is way too...my sister!" I couldn't see her as anything except my goofy, emotional, cooties-laden sister. Years later, on her wedding day, I remember seeing how her husband looked at her, he was totally in love with her, his watery eyes full of overwhelmed joy, drinking in her beauty and grace. He was the one who actually saw her. Blinded by familiarity, I had not been able to see her until now. She was glorious. I finally saw how beautiful my sister really was.

Jesus is transfigured before Peter, James, and John. His face shone like the sun and his clothes dazzle with heavenly light. If it's a miracle, it is so related to the apostles' perception of the glory of Jesus. The physical spectacle reveals how the Father perceives the Son, so to speak: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well-pleased; listen to him." The Son is always bathed in the Father's love. It's only just now that they finally perceive it.

Who could possibly give his or her heart totally to Jesus? If we perceive him to be just another teacher, symbol, or moral example, we can't. But if the Holy Spirit gives us eyes to see that he is the Beloved Son of God, who makes our humanity not just pleasing to God but filled with glory ... then who can resist him? Perhaps only the lovers are the ones who properly see.

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICA

"Recuerda, Señor, que tu ternura y tu misericordia son eternas y no permitas que nos derrote el enemigo" (Salmo 24,6). La Transfiguración del Señor, iluminación para la esperanza. Luminosidad que da vida e ilumina para ver el camino hacia el futuro, se transfiguró delante de ellos, no puede existir la duda de su identidad. "Este es mi Hijo, el Amado; éste es mi Elegido, escúchenlo" (Mateo 17,5). A partir de la Transfiguración ya no existe la oscuridad. Por muy oscuro que sea el hoy, mañana será lleno de luz, será el día de Dios.

Escuchar al Hijo es asumir como propia su historia, su cruz y su resurrección. ¿Cómo asumo su mensaje? ¿Su Evangelio? El reto, de este II Domingo de Cuaresma, es buscar, ver y elegir dónde escucho a Dios hoy. Su voz clama en el desierto, lugar donde cruza el inmigrante, su voz se escucha en los ancianos y niños desamparados. Y qué decir de las personas que mueren a causa de la violencia en las escuelas, desfiles y supermercados. Ahí, precisamente, está la voz de Dios. No la ignoremos y respondamos de acuerdo a nuestras posibilidades. En esta semana, somos invitados a contemplar el amor de Dios en los que nos rodean. Como los discípulos, bajemos de la contemplación a la acción, pero antes, contemplemos el amor de Dios en el silencio y la fidelidad a lo experimentado. "No hablen a nadie de esta visión hasta que el Hijo del Hombre haya resucitado de entre los muertos" (Mateo 17:9).
