GOSPEL MEDITATION

Did you know that the second Sunday of Easter was designated "Divine Mercy Sunday" by Pope John Paul II in 2000 during the canonization of St. Faustina Kowalska. The Catechism of the Catholic Church, in its number 1225, illuminates and catechizes what the Pope and St. Faustina transmitted to us when they experienced divine mercy in their lives.

"At his Passover, Christ opened to all men the fountains of Baptism. In fact, he had already spoken of his passion which he was about to undergo in Jerusalem as of a baptism with which he was to be baptized. The blood and water that flowed from the pierced side of the crucified Jesus are figures of Baptism and the Eucharist, sacraments of new life: since then, it is possible to be born of water and the Spirit to enter the Kingdom of God."

St. Faustina, in painting the portrait of the Lord of Mercy, shows us this image of the mercy of Christ Crucified given to us by Baptism and the Eucharist.

Pope Francis, too, explains it to us in the following way: "Mercy in the light of Easter allows itself to be perceived as a true form of knowledge. It is known through the senses, it is known through intuition, through reason, and in other ways. Well, it can also be known through the experience of mercy, because mercy opens the door of the mind to better understand the mystery of God and our personal experience (April 16, 2023)."

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICA

¿Sabías qué? el segundo domingo del Tiempo Pascual fue designado "Domingo de la Divina Misericordia" por el Papa Juan Pablo II, en el año 2,000 durante la canonización de santa Faustina Kowalska. El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, en su número 1225, ilumina y catequiza lo que el Papa y santa Faustina nos transmitieron al experimentar la misericordia divina en sus vidas.

"En su Pascua, Cristo abrió a todos los hombres las fuentes del Bautismo. En efecto, había hablado ya de su pasión que iba a sufrir en Jerusalén como de un Bautismo con que debía ser bautizado. La sangre y el agua que brotaron del costado traspasado de Jesús crucificado son figuras del Bautismo y de la Eucaristía, sacramentos de la vida nueva: desde entonces, es posible nacer del agua y del Espíritu para entrar en el Reino de Dios".

Santa Faustina al pintar el retrato del Señor de la Misericordia nos muestra esta imagen de la misericordia de Cristo Crucificado dada a nosotros por el Bautismo y la Eucaristía. El Papa Francisco, también, nos lo explica de la siguiente manera: "La misericordia a la luz de la Pascua se deja percibir como una verdadera forma de conocimiento. Se conoce a través de los sentidos, se conoce a través de la intuición, a través de la razón y aún de otras formas. Bien, se puede conocer también a través de la experiencia de la misericordia, porque la misericordia abre la puerta de la mente para comprender mejor el misterio de Dios y de nuestra experiencia personal (16 de abril del 2023)."
