GOSPEL MEDITATION

Since God created human beings, we have struggled to keep our focus on God. We wrestle with the question of “who is God” and foolishly believe some of God’s job description can be better completed by us. We wander in different directions, lose our way, think that happiness can be found elsewhere and even construct golden calves to worship. Are we simply too independent or just blatantly stubborn? It’s a good question to ask. Even with all of our silliness and distractions, God compassionately and patiently waits. He lets us assert our wills and knows that perhaps one day we will actually wake up and realize how lost we are.

“Since happiness is nothing other than the enjoyment of the highest good and since the highest good is above, no one can be made happy unless he rises above himself, not by an ascent of the body but of the heart. But we cannot rise above ourselves unless a higher power lifts us up ... Divine aid is available to those who seek it from their hearts, humbly and devoutly; and this means to sigh for it in this valley of tears, through fervent prayer (St. Bonaventure).” One of the biggest human struggles is discerning what, exactly, is the highest good. We are ordered to achieve it but if we pursue it with clouded vision, we will never truly find it.

One of the greatest obstacles to God’s power and love is a stubborn, closed heart of stone. When we are fiercely determined to set our sights elsewhere for happiness or simply ride the popular currents of the day, we will never satisfy the deep ache and longing within. We know that ache well. It is precisely why we scurry all over the place, attempting to find the next best thing to take away its pain. Nothing in the created world ever can or will. We continue our journey. One day, people may wake up and realize that they are grazing in the wrong pasture and putting themselves in harm’s way. When this awakening occurs, it will be a most joyous day as we will see God’s wide-open arms waiting to receive us. “Lead me, Lord, in your path, and I will enter in your truth. Let my heart rejoice that it may fear your name (St. Bonaventure).”

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICA

En cada uno de los domingos pasados, la Palabra de Dios nos invitaba a ser mejores seguidores de Jesús. La liturgia de hoy no se queda atrás, hay que seguir con mucho entusiasmo y fidelidad su enseñanza. Atrévete, nos dirá el Señor, levántate y ponte en camino hacia el Padre. El Papa Francisco en sus excelentes catequesis nos exhorta a lo siguiente: “Dios espera siempre que reanudemos el viaje, nos espera con paciencia, nos ve cuando todavía estamos lejos, sale a nuestro encuentro, nos abraza, nos besa, nos perdona. ¡Así es Dios! ¡Así es nuestro Padre! Y su perdón borra el pasado y nos regenera en el amor”.

¿Has experimentado el perdón de Dios? Me imagino que sí. Porque si has perdonado a alguien que te ha ofendido, de seguro que has gozado del perdón de Dios en tu vida. El Evangelio, en este domingo, es rico en alegría y perdón. Las cien ovejas y la búsqueda de una sola que estaba perdida: “Alégrense conmigo, porque he encontrado la oveja que se me había perdido” (Lucas 15,6). La mujer que pierde una moneda de las diez que tiene, y su alegría de encontrarla: “Alégrense conmigo, porque hallé la moneda que se me había perdido” (Lucas 15,9). Estas dos parábolas indican la iniciativa de Dios, quien busca, encuentra y se alegra. En la tercera parábola, la del hijo pródigo, la iniciativa de Dios se basa en la libertad y el respeto por el ser humano.

Message from Archdiocese of Miami

The ABCD provides us with an opportunity to come together as one community of faith to serve the educational, physical and spiritual needs of our Catholic community here in South Florida. Support the ABCD by making a gift today! www.isupportabcd.org

Life insurance policies assigned to a parish can mean substantial gifts. They are easy to assign and avoid taxes and estate complications. Do you have an insurance policy to assign your parish? Email us today! spaulnoel@theadom.org

“Rejoice with me, because I have found my lost sheep.” I tell you, in just the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance.” Luke 15:6-7

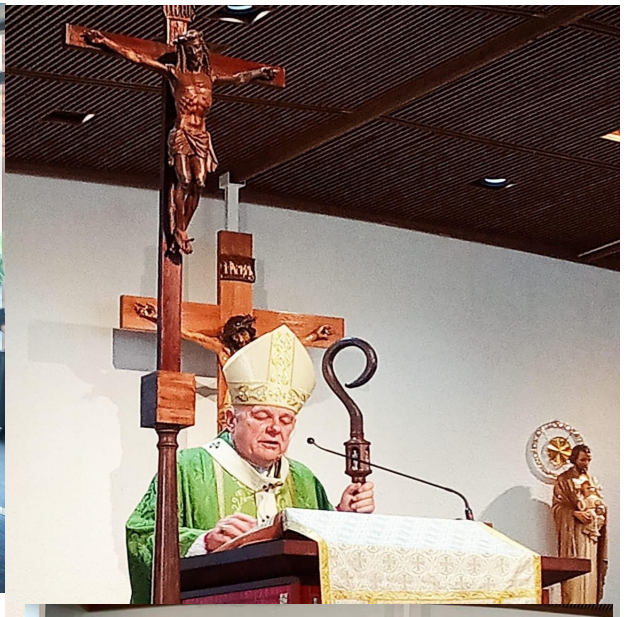

Jesus wants to teach us that no sheep can be allowed to be lost. The Lord cannot resign Himself to the fact that even a single person can be lost. In the Christian community there is always someone who is missing, who has left leaving an empty place. Let us reflect, do we always welcome all our brothers and sisters with open arms? In the parish, do we make everyone feel like they are at home. As good steward let's focus on practicing hospitality.

El ABCD nos brinda la oportunidad de unirnos como una comunidad de fe para atender las necesidades educativas, físicas y espirituales de nuestra comunidad católica aquí en el sur de la Florida. ¡Apoye al ABCD haciendo un regalo hoy! www.isupportabcd.org

Las pólizas de seguro de vida asignadas a una parroquia pueden significar donaciones sustanciales. Son fáciles de asignar y evitar los impuestos y las complicaciones del patrimonio. ¿Tiene usted una póliza de seguro para asignar a su parroquia? Envíenos un correo electrónico hoy mismo! spaulnoel@theadom.org

“Alégrense conmigo, porque ya encontré la oveja que se me había perdido”. Yo les aseguro que también en el cielo habrá más alegría por un pecador que se arrepiente, que, por noventa y nueve justos, que no necesitan arrepentirse.” Lucas 15:6-7

El pastor, al encontrar a la oveja, la pone contento sobre sus hombros, y llegando a casa convoca a los amigos y vecinos, y les dice: Alegraos conmigo” La enseñanza que Jesús quiere darnos es que no se puede dejar que ninguna oveja se pierda. El Señor no puede resignarse ante el hecho de que incluso una sola persona pueda perderse. En a la comunidad cristiana siempre hay alguien que falta, qu se ha marchado dejando un sitio vacío. ¿Reflexionemos, siempre recibimos a todos nuestros hermanos con manos abiertas? En la parroquia, hacemos a todos sentirse como si estuvieran en casa. Como buenos mayordomos, concentremos en practicar la hospitalidad.
